Conference of the German research program KoKoHs on Modeling and Measuring Competencies in Higher Education – Current State and Future Perspectives

28th to 29th November 2014 at the Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to inform you about our conference in regards to the German research program KoKoHs ("Modeling and Measuring Competencies in Higher Education") at the end of the first funding phase!

Our meeting on Competencies in Higher Education will take place on Friday and Saturday, 28th to 29th November 2014 at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz. The program includes presentations of all 23 project alliances and their research results as well as lively discussions with renowned international experts on these results and their implications for future research.

Furthermore we are very pleased to announce our three keynote speakers:

- Hamish Coates, University of Melbourne, Australia,
- Rolf van der Velden, Maastricht University, The Netherlands, and
- Jan-Eric Gustafsson, University of Gothenburg, Sweden.

We hereby cordially invite you and your colleagues to join our meeting. We would be pleased about your active participation. Further information about the program and registration will be announced promptly at our homepage http://www.kompetenzen-im-hochschulsektor.de/index\_ENG.php

We are looking forward to an active exchange and would be pleased to welcome you!

With kind regards

Your KoKoHs coordination office

Olga Zlatkin-Troitschanskaia, Christiane Kuhn & Miriam Toepper (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz)

Sigrid Blömeke & Corinna Lautenbach (Humboldt University Berlin)
